

Street Pageant Opens Labor Day Celebration Here

While fully 15,000 persons looked on and applauded, members of Ogden labor unions and workers, representing practically every craft in Ogden, paraded through the business section of the city this morning.

With two full bands, colored banners, elaborate floats, gaily decorated automobiles, and hundreds of marchers in line, the parade was one of the best which has ever passed through Ogden streets. The complete line covered nearly a mile.

An intense shower broke over the marchers after they had covered nearly half of the parade distance, but it failed to swerve even one of the participants from the course. As the marchers were nearing the city hall park in preparation for disbanding, a second deluge of rain descended, but they braved the heavy sheets of water and marched on to the end in tact.

Most of the participants received a thorough drenching before they broke ranks.

CALL OFF PROGRAM
Owing to the downpour, a program which was scheduled on the city hall grounds immediately following the parade, was necessarily postponed. Community singing was to have been a feature of the program.

The Ogden ladies' band, with its members clad in white uniforms, won much favorable comment for its appearance at the head of the parade, and also gained admiration for the manner in which the young women passed through two cold wettings and still remained in line to the end.

Promptly at 10 o'clock, as scheduled, the long line of paraders moved forward from Twenty-sixth street and Washington avenue to the city hall grounds. The streets were lined with spectators and the city hall grounds were packed with persons who planned to review the parade and then enjoy the program later.

MARSHAL OF DAY
W. E. Keating, as marshal of the day, mounted upon a white horse, led the marchers. He was followed by an automobile containing Mayor Frank Francis and J. Ray Ward, commissioner of public safety. The Ogden ladies' band, forty strong, preceded in white and playing lively marching airs, followed.

Next came a car decorated with banners and carrying officials of the Cooks and Waiters' union, local No. 581. This was followed by the Southern Pacific band and floats representing many Ogden concerns.

An elaborate float of the Utah Bottling works, arranged artistically with hundreds of bottles of soda, attracted much attention. A float of the Southern Pacific railroad carried a replica of an old type of locomotive and gained favorable comment.

Union members, arranged in line in sections designated for the various branches, and with lodge banners leading, formed the bulk of parade. Many of the workers were attired in overalls and wore headgear of gay colors.

FARMER-LABOR PARTY
Banners of the Farmer-Labor party were frequently seen in the line and contained slogans of the party.

Another feature was four young girls clad as Red Cross nurses, and carrying a large American flag. They were followed by a large delegation of members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks, local No. 641. Large representations from Bootmakers' union, local 103, Painters and Decorators' union, Printers and Pressmen's union, Cooks and Waiters' union and other crafts, were also in line.

The Barbers' union display won attention featuring a float containing a barber's chair, and a barber in action shaving a customer.

Floats which added to the attractiveness of the parade represented the Utah Bottling works, Scoville's, the Ogden Carpet Cleaning company, H. T. Mitchell, Volker Lumber company and the Lion Coal company. The floats were followed by a long line of automobiles carrying union members and representatives of Ogden business concerns.

The line of march was from Twenty-sixth street, north on Washington to Twenty-second street, south to Twenty-fifth street, west to Wall avenue, south to Twenty-sixth street and east to the city hall grounds.

Speakers at the program this afternoon will be J. J. Sullivan, M. P. Bates and L. Hubbard. Races and athletic contests will be added. The merchants of the city have contributed a large number of prizes for the events. During the afternoon and evening there will be band concerts and dancing.

Plane Entened In Air Mail Flight Wrecked In Ogden

Airplane No. 101, entered in the trial flights of the United States air mail route from Cheyenne to Salt Lake City, was wrecked about one-quarter of a mile west of the Globe Mills shortly before noon yesterday when Pilot J. P. Woodward was forced to land. The plane turned turtle, smashing the propeller, radiator, demolishing a wing and smashing the rudder. Woodward escaped unhurt.

The ill-fated machine, according to Pilot Woodward, left Rock Springs early yesterday morning encountering several storms en route. Carrying Ogden the motor began to miss and the plane just barely crossed the Wasatch mountains. The forced landing was made in a sandy field. A salvage crew was dispatched to Ogden from Salt Lake today to make repairs on the plane by Manager Claron Nelson, in charge of the Salt Lake district.

Becker Auto Stolen; Recovered by Police

About two hours after receiving a report that an automobile belonging to G. L. Becker had been stolen, Detectives Robert Chambers and W. A. Jones recovered the missing car, within half a block from the Becker residence, Twenty-fourth street and Van Buren avenue.

The automobile was not damaged, but apparently had been driven considerable distance, the gasoline tank being lighter by seven gallons than it was when the machine was put into the garage before the robbery. It is said.

The lock on the Becker garage had been forced by the thieves who took the car.

OGDEN WOMAN COULD STAND IT NO LONGER

Mrs. Nettles Says She Suffered Untold Misery for Five Years Until Relieved by Tanlac; Can Never Praise It Enough.

"I just hate to think of the awful condition I was in for the past nine years before I got Tanlac, and I'm indebted to the medicine more than words can express for the good health I'm now enjoying," declared Mrs. L. P. Nettles, of 2940 Pingree avenue, Ogden, Utah.

"I simply suffered untold misery with a bad case of stomach trouble and rheumatism, and had just about reached the point where I thought I could stand it no longer when I got Tanlac. Every bone in my body seemed to ache, my legs swelled terribly, and my feet pained me so that I could barely stand to touch them to the floor, much less put my shoes on."

"For months at a time I didn't go past the door sill, and couldn't even get up the stairs. My stomach was so completely out of order that I couldn't digest a thing properly. I had to keep on a strict diet, and even what little I did eat caused terrible cramping spells in the pit of my stomach. Gas would form and press up into my chest, almost shutting off my breath entirely."

DEMOS TO FACE FRAUD CHARGES

Ogden Storekeeper Captured in St. Louis Returns Here Today

Basil Demos, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses while conducting a store in Ogden, was this morning brought back to the city to await trial, after having been captured in St. Louis, Mo. Deputy Sheriff Dick Woodson brought the prisoner here and lodged him in the county jail.

Demos will be faced with many other charges within a few days, it is said. He is alleged to have extended his credit to the limit before selling his stock of goods in the store and, after he received the money for the goods, backed a truck to the rear door and hauled the store contents away. He disappeared from Ogden last fall and was arrested a few days ago by St. Louis officers.

Dueling did not exist in ancient Greece or Rome.

and producing severe pains around my heart.

"I had pains in my back, over my kidneys, that almost drove me to distraction, and if I tried to bend over it seemed like I would break in two. I was so nervous that the least little noise would cause me to tremble like a leaf, and I didn't know what a good night's sleep was. I couldn't do a bit of my housework, and my condition was simply alarming."

"A neighbor of mine who had been entirely relieved from a severe case of rheumatism by taking Tanlac begged me to try it. After a while I began to improve steadily until I am now in better condition than I have been in years. I have a splendid appetite, can just eat anything I want without suffering from indigestion, and am entirely free from gas and pains in my stomach."

"My back never hurts me and the swelling and aching has entirely gone from my legs and feet. My nerves are in good condition and at night I sleep like a child. Why, I don't have a bit of trouble in doing my housework now, and I think so much of Tanlac that I can never praise it enough." Tanlac is sold in Ogden by A. R. McIntyre Drug Co. Two busy stores. Advertisement.

For Subscription and Advertising Department, Call Phone No. 56.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Visit Canyon—Sixty-three tourists en route to Yellowstone National park from the east arrived in Ogden today. They spent more than six hours here during which time they visited the Hermitage in Ogden canyon.

Ogden Typewriter House for typewriters and repairs, 2422 Hudson Ave. Phone 236.

Elks to meet—The first regular meeting of the B. P. O. E. No. 719 will be held Tuesday evening at the Elks' home on Grant avenue. Important business will come before the meeting.

Dance tonight at Danceland, formerly the assembly. Olio Reeves' Jazz orchestra. 5126

Go to Coast—Twenty soldiers recently recruited into the service at Fort Logan, Colo., were in Ogden for a short time today en route to Camp Kearney.

Phone 502 for messenger.

Meeting Postponed—Regular meeting of the City Federation of Women's clubs has been postponed until September 13.

Clean large rugs wanted at The Standard-Examiner office. 4302

Goes to Idaho—Willard G. Wilson, traveling agent for the Southern Pacific with headquarters here, departed today for points in Idaho. He will be away ten days.

Eushel baskets and fruit boxes for sale. Baskets $3.25 per dozen. Grou's Grain store, 332 Twenty-fourth street. 4927

Youth Arrested—J. McBeth, 17-year-old truck driver, was arrested late Saturday on a charge of having left his automobile engine running and unattended. He will appear before the city court tomorrow morning.

Lots of spot dances at Danceland tonight. 5125

Sorority Members—All members of the National sorority, who are not members of the Ogden Pan-Hellenic association, are invited to join the association. They are requested to get in touch with Mrs. S. P. Dobbs of 2551 Fowler avenue before September 14 so that arrangements can be made for the first meeting of the winter season.

Deaths and Funerals

FRANK—Funeral services for Allis B. Frank were held at 3 o'clock at the Lindquist funeral chapel Sunday. Bishop Robert McFarland conducted the services. The speakers were W. H. Hunter, C. J. A. Lindquist and Bishop McFarland. Mrs. Lorene Snyder sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Mrs. Mary Farley and Mrs. Snyder sang "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" and "Shall We Meet Beyond the River." A. Glen Wright gave "Oh, My Father." There was a large attendance and many floral tributes. Interment was in the Ogden City cemetery. W. H. Hunter dedicated the grave. Mr. Frank died in Kansas on August 31. His body was shipped to Ogden and the services were held here.

Savage tribes at the head waters of the Amazon used weird methods to speak with the dead.

Of Slightly Used Pianos and Player Pianos
Used Upright Pianos From $68 Up
SALE NOW GOING ON

Glen Bros.-Roberts Piano Co.
Telephone 181 2472 Hudson Ave.

GROWERS POOL WOOL

(By International News Service)
SPRINGFIELD, Ohio.—Woolgrowers in Clark county plan to store their wool until the price advances, according to announcement made by County Agent E. W. Hawkins. The growers refuse to sell for thirty cents a pound, saying that the price is too low. A year ago Clark County wool ranged in price from sixty-five cents to seventy-eight cents a pound. Farmers in storing wool will be given financial relief by banks on warehouse receipts, it is stated.

Why you must wash
your face every day

BECAUSE the network of tiny pores and minute glands, which constitutes what we call the skin, must be cleansed thoroughly every day. Otherwise they clog with dirt, dust and oil secretions. Then you soon have blackheads and pimples.

Wash away these poisonous secretions every day with the mild, soothing lather of Palmolive. This freshens the complexion and allows the skin to breathe.

Result, a clear complexion, a smooth complexion, a fresh, rosy complexion, a complexion blooming with the beauty of health.

(If your skin is very dry, apply a little Palmolive Cold Cream before washing. This will keep it smooth and flexible.)

THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY, MILWAUKEE, U. S. A.

PALMOLIVE

Be sure to use Palmolive

Its ingredients are the mildest, most soothing of natural cleansers. The use of Palm and Olive oils was discovered 3,000 years ago in ancient Egypt. They produce a wonderful profuse lather, mild and rich as cream.

Massage this creamy lather lightly into your skin with your two hands. Then dash on the rinsing water. Finish with Palmolive Cold Cream.

Do this thorough cleansing just before bedtime and you will wake with a becomingly fresh complexion.

